

University of Missouri-St. Louis Offers New Nonprofit Board Member Legal Issues: Duties Liabilities, and Protections Seminar

Wednesday, August 12, 2009

3:00 p.m.–5:00 p.m.

$25 .2 CEUs

Instructor: Dan Sise

Location: 126 JC Penney Conference Center, UM–St. Louis

This class is intended for anyone who serves or is considering serving on the board of a nonprofit organization. Topics covered will include board member duties, liabilities, and legal protections, both in the form of insurance and indemnity, as well as statutory protection from liability. Of particular note for attorneys, or nonprofit organizations that want to recruit attorneys, will be a discussion of the Missouri Bar's goals for attorney pro bono work, and whether that pro bono goal can be satisfied by service on a nonprofit board. Missouri Bar CLE credit applied for. REGISTER for NPO Board Member Legal Issues or call (314) 516-6713
