Dr. Kathryn Gray Named Assistant Principal at Ritenour High School

July 9, 2010 – The Ritenour School District is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Kathryn Gray as an Assistant Principal at Ritenour High School. Dr. Gray joins the district from the Rockwood School District, where she was a high school teacher and part of the district's administrative leadership development program.

Most recently, Dr. Gray taught math at Rockwood Summit High School (2008-2010).

She also served as a math teacher at both McCluer North High School (2005-2008) and Fort Zumwalt West High School (2004-2005).

During her tenure as a classroom teacher, Dr. Gray gained a variety of administrative experience. She took part in Rockwood's administrative leadership program for the past year (2009-2010) and served as an administrative intern with the Clayton School District from 2008-2009. She was also an administrative dean at both Rockwood Summit and McCluer North High School, working with student attendance and discipline.

Dr. Gray holds a doctor of education degree from Maryville University in St. Louis and a master's degree in educational administration from Williams Woods University in Fulton, Mo. She earned an undergraduate degree in education from Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa.
