John “Jay” Moore Named Chief Medical Officer/ Executive Director of Medical Affairs for SSM DePaul Health Center

ST. LOUIS – John “Jay” Moore, MD, will become the new Chief Medical Officer/Executive Director of Medical Affairs for SSM DePaul Health Center beginning in September.

Dr. Moore is board certified in Internal Medicine and in Pediatrics and currently serves as a member of the St. Charles Clinic Medical Group, in Wentzville, Missouri, and as Medical Director of Quality and Process Improvement for SSM Physicians’ Organization. He is a past member of the Medical Executive Committee at SSM St. Joseph Health Center and SSM St. Joseph Hospital West. Dr. Moore is a member of the American College of Physicians, the American Academy of Pediatrics, and MGMA.

“We welcome Dr. Moore to SSM DePaul Health Center and look forward to advancing our efforts in establishing DePaul as a leader in the areas of clinical quality and patient safety,” says Patrice Komoroski, president, SSM DePaul Health Center.”

In addition, Dr. Moore acted as a CQI Plus Project Team Leader and successfully led SSM Physicians’ Organization through training and implementation of EPIC - a complete electronic medical record system. He developed and implemented a Quality Incentive Program in cooperation with Mercy Health Plans for the SSM Physicians’ Organization, and led the team to develop a system-wide vendor relations policy limiting influence of pharmaceutical and device manufacturer representatives on practicing physicians.

Dr. Moore is originally from Columbus, Mississippi. His residency training includes Chief Resident – Pediatrics, and Resident Physician – Internal Medicine and Pediatrics, from the University of Missouri.
