Trinity Catholic High School President Sr. Karl Mary Winkelmann, S.S.N.D. and Trinity religion teacher Mr. Pat Whalen were two of the 46 recipients of the 2009 Cardinal Rigali Service Awards that were presented Sept. 17. Sr. Karl Mary Winkelmann has been the President of Trinity since the school opened in the fall of 2003. Prior to that, Sr. Karl Mary served as the Principal of Rosary High School. Rosary and St. Thomas Aquinas-Mercy High School merged in 2003 to form Trinity. Pat Whalen was a religion teacher at Rosary and continues in that role today at Trinity. The awards were given for outstanding service to the archdiocese, parishes, schools and agencies and were presented by Archbishop Robert Carlson at a luncheon at the Cardinal Rigali Center.
